

Nirvana for the passionate shopper.

January/February 2007

Now Open at Paradise Valley Urban Villages

- Qdoba Mexican Grill, a fast-casual eatery offering fresh Mexican fare, is now open at Village Crossroads, located on the southeast corner of Tatum Blvd. & Cactus Rd.
- Yasu Sushi is now open at Village Center, on the northwest corner of Cactus Rd. & Paradise Village Parkway.
- Borders completed a remodel and now features a Seattle's Best coffee bar.

Coming Soon to Paradise Valley Urban Villages

- Artistic Beauty College will be opening soon at Village Fair North.
- Chick-fil-A is under construction and will be opening soon at Village Crossroads, facing Tatum Blvd.

Now Open at Paradise Valley Mall

- No Fear, apparel for the action sports enthusiast is now open on the east wing near JCPenny.

Construction Update

- World Savings bank will be opening soon on the Paradise Valley Mall Ring Road, facing Cactus Rd.

Kids Club

Paradise Valley Mall hosts Kids Club, a FREE program for young kids offered the first Monday of every month at 11am. Kids can learn and dance to the music of Persephone and the Westcor mascot, Webster the Wart Hog. The one-hour show features singing, reading and other special kid-friendly activities. More information is available at www.westcor.com.

Teen Trendsetters

Every month, Paradise Valley Mall creates a teen newsletter called Trendsetters. The newsletter offers fashion tips, trends and editorial content specific to teen shoppers while including coupons from some of Paradise Valley Mall's trendiest shops. If you know of a trend-savvy teen who loves fashion make sure they pick up a copy of the newsletter at Guest Services or by visiting www.westcor.com.

Tell Us What You Think!

What would you like to see at Paradise Valley Mall and the surrounding Urban Villages?
Email pvm@westcor.com.